USING DAYLIGHT AS A LIGHT SOURCE

LISA HESCHONG, ARCHITECT
PRINCIPAL, HESCHONG MAHONE GROUP, INC.
FAIR OAKS, CALIFORNIA

The webcast will provide you with state-of-the-art information on:

- Strategies to integrate daylighting with electric lighting for offices, schools, retail, and other workplace environments
- Current capabilities of tools to predict daylight illumination levels within a space, to help you understand how daylight illumination will vary by time of day, season and location
- Daylight's contribution to visual quality, human health and well being, and our national energy efficiency goals

The Venture Lighting Institute has waived the class fee to assist clients who seek education for professional development but are forced to make budgetary reductions due to economic times. Our online courses have always been free, now this is another way for you to gain industry knowledge, face to face. This is your last chance of the year to visit the VLI. Come join us for an October course, it's on us.
